Jubilee Celebrations in Bradford Abbas

Friday 3rd June – From 1.00pm, Street Party in Church Road (the road will be closed to traffic). Children (and brave adults) are invited to come along dressed as a king or a queen. There might even be a prize for the best costume. Some tables will be set up in the street. Villagers and their friends/families are invited to bring a picnic from home and a chair. (If you have a light fold-up table you might like to bring that too). The Rose and Crown will open at lunchtime and will have live music in the pub garden and will be serving BBQ food. The school will host entertainments for children. From 3.00pm, the W.I. is serving afternoon tea in front of the Village Hall. From 4.00pm, it's THE CHURCH THAT ROCKS run by SMCT. There will be live music in front of the church and later inside the church. There will be a bar in the village hall and food available.

Saturday 4th June – From 4.00pm, the Sports Club will host an afternoon of sporting activities which everybody can join in. The bar will be open and there will be music and a BBQ into the evening. The club is inviting villagers who fancy camping out to pitch their tents on the club's field and avoid that wobbly walk home at the end of the evening. They will have hot drinks and breakfast available for you on Sunday morning.

Sunday 5th June – At 11.00am, there will be a Commonwealth Brunch in the church. Join us for a bite to eat and to hear some tales of life from the early part of the Queen's reign.

DECORATING THE VILLAGE – We are asking everyone to help brighten up the village by decorating their houses and leaving the decorations up through the four-day holiday. Please follow a Red, White and Blue theme. You might have a royal scarecrow or a model of a king or queen from history or make your house look like a palace or anything really.

RAFFLE - There is a big raffle (to be drawn at the pub on Sunday afternoon) and we are asking for donations of prizes.

We also hope there will be displays/exhibitions across the long weekend. Details to follow.

Please tell your family and friends and join us to make it a memorable weekend.

Message for Dog Owners

As a dog owner I feel blessed that we live in such a beautiful area and have access to so many walks on our doorstep. However, it incenses me that there are dog owners who consistently bag their dog mess and then leave the bag on the floor for someone else to pick up...

Do you not realise that plastic bags don't rot! It would be better as the National Trust suggests to flick your dog mess with a stick into the hedgerow out of the way or use your dog waste bag as glove in the same manner so the waste can rot down naturally.

Please be a responsible dog owner follow the code of 'bag it and bin it' and stop littering our countryside. Jane Purchase.

A message from the Vicar

There is an old saying, "Never give up"...

As I came to write this letter for the magazine, my thoughts wandered towards retirement. I would imagine that most folk already know that Liz and I are due to retire from 25th June. We will be leaving our lovely home here in Holwell and moving to East Chinnock in Somerset to be nearer our family.

My mind also wandered on to thinking about Lent and wondering what I should sacrifice as part of the "forty days and forty nights"? I suddenly realised that these two things were intrinsically linked. There were two words that very easily linked the two thoughts together, and those words are 'giving up'. We need to 'give up' something for Lent or do something more!

Liz and I are also thinking of what 'giving up' parish ministry will mean and what the Good Lord is leading us towards now. I am not intending to 'give up' everything, as I am to retain my work in chaplaincy, particularly across at Salisbury Livestock Mart. Liz also has thoughts about 'giving up' working at Yetminster Health Centre. This is a role that she has enjoyed immensely over the last six years or so, being in and part of that community. We will both be 'giving up' several things.

Equally, the news over the last few days has also highlighted the words 'give up'. Hundreds of thousands of people have fled Ukraine, probably giving up for ever homes and lives that they have loved and been part of for years. Much as I hate to admit it, many folks in Ukraine have 'given up' their lives for a country in which they believe. Please hold them and the whole situation in your prayers from now on.

This will be the last piece that I write for the magazine. Liz and I would like to thank you most sincerely for your love and prayers that you have given us during our time here. They have been appreciated hugely. We, in turn, continue to pray for you all, hold you in our hearts. So, it is farewell for now, but perhaps, knowing us as you do, we haven't really 'given up', well not totally anyway!

Vicar Richard & Liz
